

Of Interest to Women

Weddings

Wednesday afternoon, when she entertained a luncheon to introduce Mrs. Alan Thomas Burke, a recent bride, who has come from Buffalo for residence in Tulsa. Mrs. Harold Stuart Brown of Buffalo, a young matron, who is visiting the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McEwen, shared the honors of the courtesy.

It was an attractive as well as very pleasant affair with a group of 22 matrons and young women as guests. The table was centered with a mound of spring flowers, in all the delicate shades, and the candleholders, which lighted in the dining room, were of blue. After luncheon the party joined the guests at the mid-week party of the Country club for a round of bridge. Mrs. Grels will give the remainder of her party series following the Lenten season.

A pleasant occasion of the week in that it had a group of the most pleasant of the series of affairs in entertainment of women, the club this season, though the attendance was not as large as that of the previous week.

Mrs. Lee Clinton presided as hostess and was assisted by a group of a dozen matrons in receiving and extending the welcome of the club to its and their out-of-town guests. Mrs. Preston C. West and Mrs. Horace P. Anderson did honors in the dining room, pouring tea and coffee. The reservations were as follows: Madames W. Lyle Skey, John D. Hall, Sam P. McMillen, Henry N. Grels, Dan J. Dawson, Harry A. Adams, A. E. McPhee Dr. and Mrs. Harry D. Murdoch, Dr. and Mrs. W. N. Atkins, Misses Muriel McIves and Jewel Cline; Dr. W. J. Trahan.

Members of the Muskogee and Tulsa high school basketball teams were among the 100 guests at the club's annual meeting at the Elks' club. Madames Grant R. McCollum, Robert Galbreath, Curtis H. Adams and R. W. Castle were guests.

Fast Wednesday's mid-week party of the Country club was one of the most pleasant of the series of affairs in entertainment of women, the club this season, though the attendance was not as large as that of the previous week.

Mrs. Lee Clinton presided as hostess and was assisted by a group of a dozen matrons in receiving and extending the welcome of the club to its and their out-of-town guests. Mrs. Preston C. West and Mrs. Horace P. Anderson did honors in the dining room, pouring tea and coffee. The reservations were as follows: Madames W. Lyle Skey, John D. Hall, Sam P. McMillen, Henry N. Grels, Dan J. Dawson, Harry A. Adams, A. E. McPhee Dr. and Mrs. Harry D. Murdoch, Dr. and Mrs. W. N. Atkins, Misses Muriel McIves and Jewel Cline; Dr. W. J. Trahan.

Members of the Muskogee and Tulsa high school basketball teams were among the 100 guests at the club's annual meeting at the Elks' club. Madames Grant R. McCollum, Robert Galbreath, Curtis H. Adams and R. W. Castle were guests.

An afternoon of cards with Mrs. Claude H. Rosenstein and Mrs. Edward Levin as hostesses Wednesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Rosenstein was planned in pretty compliment to Mrs. Leo Strauss of Memphis, Tenn., guest of Mrs. Louis D. Barrett, Wednesday.

There were about 30 guests, among whom six tables of bridge were formed and high score was won by Mrs. Dreben. The card tables from which luncheon was afterwards served were decorated with glass baskets of juncos, sweet peas and fuchsias. Mrs. H. J. Fiss of Muskogee, mother of Mrs. Rosenstein, was an out-of-town guest, as was also Mrs. J. B. Gibson of Muskogee.

Mrs. James C. Tenant of Caldonia, N. Y., was named a guest of honor of the pleasant informal party with a group of four matrons including Mrs. Carl Pleasant, Mrs. Louis Cohen, Mrs. J. P. Brown and Mrs. Claude H. Fiddley, entertained Wednesday afternoon in Mrs. Pleasant's home.

Clusters of pink and white sweet peas decorated the rooms into which the score or more of guests were welcomed for an afternoon of informal diversion. The program of contests and "stunts" was followed by the serving of a salad and ice course, at small tables.

Mrs. Fred L. Dunn entertained a company of 20 matrons with an informal afternoon Thursday to meet Mrs. James Trent Hobbs of Wichita, Kan., Mrs. Earl A. Clark's sister.

The guests were invited to take thimble and needle, which not only work used in the hour or so given to

Mrs. Henry N. Grels was hostess at the first of a series of parties

GROUND FLOOR ROBINSON ARCADE

OUR ambition is plain--to be known as the headquarters for the newer ideas

What Our Location Means to You

Unusual Trifit Opportunities or style. If you do not think that being such a few steps out of the high rent district means much--just drop in here any day and note the startling difference in prices. Not only are assortments ample but you will note they are wondrous in style individually. Take 20 steps west of Main street and learn for your own satisfaction.

A Very Special Selling of Clever Spring Suits

FEATURED FOR MONDAY

at $35

Worth Up to $50

We have made a special effort this season to give not only unusual styles but also unusual values. As a result we have a stock of suits distinguished for their superb tailoring, excellent workmanship, superior materials and in modes typical of this shop. Exceedingly smart are the box coats with their youthful lines, the semi-box coats the belted and semi-tailored styles.

These suits featured for Monday are all in fine men's wear serge.

Other Suits Up to $85.00

The Advance Shop

8 West Third Street. Two Doors West of Main

sewing, but served well in the contest in which they were invited to take part. Mrs. Fred J. Scott and Miss Mildred Scott assisted Mrs. Dunn in serving.

Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Holmes and Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Mattson entertained with an informal party Saturday evening in the Country club, having as guests Mrs. M. E. Webb, Mrs. J. E. Ellis of Henryetta, Misses Loretta Simmons, Edith Frost, Dolores Holmes, Edith Frost, Willard Holmes, Willa May Simmonds, Elizabeth Morgan; Misses H. E. Penberton, Cornell, C. C. McDermott, J. M. Kelly, Artells Dixon and Ira Rinhardt.

Mrs. Ernest L. Connolly entertained at cards Friday afternoon, honoring the visit of her house guests, Mrs. J. J. Larkin, Mrs. R. L. Peterson, A. C. Hixon, N. G. Orish, John Peterman, J. F. Burkhardt, Merle Pranty, Walter Kirkpatrick, Bert Glazebrook, L. H. Davis, Georgia Tucker, A. W. Hamill, Charles T. Wilson, G. V. N. Yates, T. C. King, John W. Cunningham, Jennie Evans, Billie Yantis of Warren, Pa., and Miss Marguerite Moran.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Leonard were hosts of an informal evening Tuesday, honoring Mrs. Grace Broderick's guests, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Manning of Pineville, Mo.; Morris and Madam Ralph Campbell, C. E. Simmons, C. E. Farren and D. C. Connor were guests.

Mrs. Harry L. Stewart's compliment to Miss Margaret McMahon, a refreshment were served to Madames W. M. McDermott, H. W. Roe, Donald Witten, Jerome Collins, H. H. Hanna, J. Burr Johnson, R. E. Doying, G. M. Glass, Laura Price, Mrs. A. C. Hixon, N. G. Orish, John Peterman, J. F. Burkhardt, Merle Pranty, Walter Kirkpatrick, Bert Glazebrook, L. H. Davis, Georgia Tucker, A. W. Hamill, Charles T. Wilson, G. V. N. Yates, T. C. King, John W. Cunningham, Jennie Evans, Billie Yantis of Warren, Pa., and Miss Marguerite Moran.

A pretty and springlike color note was seen in the decorations of lavender and yellow flowers. Baskets of the blossoms were also used to decorate the card tables during the service of luncheon. Mrs. Charles D. O'Hearn made high score.

Mrs. Harry L. Stewart's compliment to Miss Margaret McMahon, a visiting girl, was a matinee party Friday in the Empress theater. Following the afternoon of the matinee, matrons and girls of the party adjourned to the home of Mrs. Stewart where refreshments were served to Madames D. E. McMahon, Bert Glazebrook, L. H. Davis, Georgia Tucker, A. W. Hamill, Charles T. Wilson, G. V. N. Yates, T. C. King, John W. Cunningham, Jennie Evans, Billie Yantis of Warren, Pa., and Miss Marguerite Moran.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Leonard were hosts of an informal evening Tuesday, honoring Mrs. Grace Broderick's guests, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Manning of Pineville, Mo.; Morris and Madam Ralph Campbell, C. E. Simmons, C. E. Farren and D. C. Connor were guests.

Mrs. Harry L. Stewart's compliment to Miss Margaret McMahon, a

of Wichita, Kan., and Mrs. Charles E. Waits.

Four tables of bridge were played with Mrs. W. J. Gregg making high score.

Luncheon was served at the tables.

Mrs. P. G. Van Blarcom and son, Pauline Van Lae, wife, was an out-of-town guest.

Mrs. and Madames C. E. Simmons, Jack, Anna, Grand, H. E. Penberton, Curtis H. Adams, Nease T. Gilbert, C. H. Seely, W. E. Brown, C. W. Benedict, Irwin George, M. Canterbury and Alfred King formed a party that surprised Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Hartman with an indoor picnic and dancing party last evening.

Mrs. Harry F. Castle entertained a small party at bridge Wednesday afternoon in courtesy in Ms. Castle's home.

Mrs. Frank W. Dillard entertained with seven tables of bridge Friday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Walter Hart Clegg of Columbus, Ga., and Miss Susan Lipscomb of Auburn, Ala.

Miss Mary Delaney was hostess at Saturday's meeting of the White Club with four tables of bridge playing.

Parties

Mrs. T. J. Hartman had the members of the U. S. A. club with her for a regular meeting Thursday afternoon, while Misses Adele Verger King was a special guest.

Miss Laura Rousseau was hostess to members of the Christian Endeavor society of the First Presbyterian church, in a pleasant social evening Tuesday in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Rousseau, on South Frisco avenue.

About fifty young folks, all attired in colonial costume, joined in the evening of old-fashioned games, concerts and music. Refreshments were served.

A new bridge club to be known as the Ace was organized with a dozen young matrons as members, Friday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Gertrude Benedict, Mrs. R. E. Penberton, Mrs. C. W. Benedict, Irwin George, M. Canterbury and Alfred King.

Now members of the Cadman club received at a recent meeting of the organization are Mrs. H. W. Hollingsworth, Mrs. C. W. Benedict, Misses Mabel D. Darrow, Ethel Hammer, Dreyfus Eugene Hoop, J. C. Redden, Earl H. Brown and Gladys Colvin.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Neil D. Lutherland was the scene on Friday evening of an indoor picnic planned in surprise by a group of

Spring 1919

The Opening of the New Season

Finds us ready with a large and comprehensive showing of New Spring Merchandise, increased floor space and larger stocks. The work of remodeling the third floor is completed and we invite your inspection tomorrow. The second floor has added new modern fixtures throughout and it will be a pleasure to shop here. The recent changes also permit more room for the staple and novelty lines now carried on the main floor.

General Information

Goods are delivered the day after they are purchased.

No goods are sold on approval. Merchandise certificates for any amount may be obtained at the office on the Mezzanine Floor.

Arrange with Credit Department on the Mezzanine Floor for opening charge accounts.

We carry Pictorial Review Patterns and Magazines.

We prepay carrying charges on all mail orders.

Free lessons in Embroidery, Knitting and other fancy work for those who purchase materials here.

Manicure appointments may be made through the Millinery Department.

A new Candy Department is being installed on the Main Floor.

Store Hours 8 a. m. to 6 p. m.

Saturdays 8 a. m. to 9 p. m.

New Spring Suits

Smart lines and decorative detail that suggest youthfulness is the prevailing style feature. They are developed in Tricotine, Serge and Paulette, also Paulette and Serge combined. Box coats and blouse effects lead. However, you will find excellent choice among the more conservative styles.

Have you seen the special lot at $29.75?

—Second Floor

Capes and Dolmans

Rivaling the coats and suits this season. There are many attractive styles to choose from. Capes of navy blue Serge and Tricotine trimmed with silk military braid and buttons; others plain with colored silk lining. Dolmans are shown in Tricotine, Silverette and Serge in blue and tan or rose taupe.

—Second Floor

New Spring Sweaters

A wonderful assortment of all Silk and Fiber Silk Sweaters. Russian Blouse effects, coat and slipover styles, in those irresistible shades of Turquoise, Sapphire, Coral, Rose, Peach, Silver, Maize, Gold, Orchid, Pink, Wisteria and White. You are sure to find the style and color according to your fancy.

—Second Floor

New Spring Skirts

Again fancy runs riot in colors and the materials are the most exquisite shown for many seasons. Fantasy Crepes, in plain shades and white, as well as smart sport models in black and white and other combinations.

—Second Floor

Dresses and Blouses

Due to unfavorable market conditions shipments have been delayed, however, new models arrive almost daily, and many more should reach us this week. The Dresses are shown in Taffeta, Indestructible Voile and Georgette combinations. Georgette Blouses featuring popular style effects as well as a good selection of tailored Wash Blouses.

—Second Floor

New in the Infants Shop

Dainty dresses, slips and other garments. Handmade dresses, carriage and nursery requisites as well as novelties and gift articles of all kinds. A competent woman in charge, who understands the baby's needs and can assist young mothers with their shopping.

Second Floor

Silk Underwear

Beautiful new creations in Satin, Silk Jersey, Crepe de Chine and Satin and Georgette combined in white and flesh shades. Gowns, Teddy Bears, Combinations, Bloomers and Vests in such a variety of styles as to defy description.

Also Dark Colored Satin Bloomers—All Shades.

—Second Floor

In the Corset Department

New Spring models are arriving daily. Froelast, Gossard, Henderson and La Princess Corsets of the very highest character.

An experienced and thoroughly competent corsetiere in charge. Special attention given to surgical fittings.

—Third Floor

Authentic Millinery Modes

As interpreted by the designers of Vogue, Knox, Gage, Hawak and Bluebird Hats, in such a variety of styles as to insure satisfactory choice.

Special attention is also given to Children's Hats for every purpose wear.

Special Showing Monday of $5.00 Hats

—Third Floor

New Silks of Every Weave

Mallinson's Bushanara Crepes in favored shades for spring. Paisley Printed Mandarin Crepes in the popular black and white offsets.

Fantail Silks in white and colors.

Brocaded Shantung in attractive colorings.

Satin Barrette, plain coots including Turquoise, Rose, Overseas Blue, Sapphire, Tan and White.

Also brocades, plaids and block plaid patterns.

Satin Stripe Silk Grenadines in wanted colors.

Cheney's Sweet Briar Silks, beautiful floral patterns in subdued colorings.

Indestructible Voiles and Georgette Crepes in fancy new printings.

Fancy Foulards, Pussy Willow Taffetas and Cheney's Autronette Silks in new patterns.

</div